

Family Story

Tell a story related to your family's history, dreams, or struggles. Choose ONE of these prompts.

- When did your family move to [local area], and why did they come?
- When is a time that your family struggled to overcome a difficult situation?
- What do people misunderstand about your family, your culture, or your background? What do you want people to realize?
- How does your heritage affect who you are or your dreams and goals?
- Who is a person in your family who inspires you and why?
Whom will you interview to get more information about this story?

Write 3 big ideas or parts of the story that you plan to discuss.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Remember, if you want your story to be exemplary, you need to really connect with your audience, so communicate with emotion and use details! Plan the big ideas you want to talk about in advance, but it's better not to read off every word so that it sounds more natural and real.
