Temperatures across the Pacific Northwest have spiked to unheard-of levels while populations struggle to cope.

Numerous locations in Oregon and Washington state have broken all-time records by large margins.

Here's what's causing record temperatures in the Pacific Northwest
An exceptional weather pattern and climate change have cooked up a heat wave unmatched in regional intensity.

Shouting “Freedom” and other anti-government slogans, hundreds of Cubans took to the streets in cities around the country on Sunday to protest food and medicine shortages, in a remarkable eruption of discontent not seen in nearly 30 years.

Cubans Denounce ‘Misery’ in Biggest Protests in Decades

The rallies, widely viewed as astonishing for a country that limits dissent, were set off by economic crises worsened by the pandemic.
